

Report on International Women's Day Celebration

The International Women's Day was observed on 8th March 2025 at Girls' Sochum, Sao Chang College. The celebration was organized around the theme “For All Women and Girls: Rights. Equality. Empowerment.”

The program aimed to raise awareness about the importance of ensuring equal rights, opportunities, and empowerment for all women and girls in society. Students actively participated in the event, making it both meaningful and engaging.

A special highlight of the celebration was a dramatic act performed by the students based on the given theme. The act beautifully portrayed the struggles faced by women and girls in different aspects of life, such as education, social freedom, and equal opportunities. It also emphasized the importance of standing up for one's rights and promoting gender equality. The powerful performance conveyed a strong message about empowerment and inspired the audience to reflect on their roles in creating a more inclusive society.

The program concluded on a positive note, leaving everyone with a deeper understanding of the significance of the day and the need to work collectively towards achieving equality and empowerment for all women and girls.

Overall, the celebration was a great success and served as a reminder of the ongoing journey toward gender justice and equality.

Authenticated

Maria
Principal
Sao Chang College
Tuensang : Nagaland