

Report on Debate Competition

Date: 22-10-2024

Time: 12 Noon

Venue: Conference Hall

The department of History in collaboration with the department of English organised a debate on the theme "Is the NLTP Act beneficial to Naga society?" on 22nd October. Two students each from all the departments totalled 14 participated.

The objective of the debate was to evoke interest among students of the current issues in the state, while fostering communication skills and building confidence in the students for a wider platform.

Mr Y Yongkai Phom was adjudged the best debater and the Motion group was declared the winner of the debate. Winners were awarded cash prize with certificate, meanwhile all the participants were awarded with a certificate of appreciation.

The event also saw the participation of the faculties in various capacities with Mr Takumpuba, Assistant Prof. as the chairperson of the program and Mr Akyuba Sangtam, HOD English warmly welcomed the gathering. Keynote address was delivered by Mr Langnyei, Assistant Prof. History. He highlighted the background of the NLTP Act and its intended purpose. Mr Tekameren, Assistant Prof, Mr Longchenti, Assistant Prof, and Miss Hotoni Yeptho, Assistant Prof, graced the event as the panel of judges. The program concluded with a vote of thanks from Miss Alitoli V Sumi, Assistant Prof. Altogether 83 attended the program.
