

GOVERNMENT OF NAGALAND
OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL SAO CHANG COLLEGE: TUENSANG; NAGALAND

One day seminar on "Crime against women" was organized on 28/03/2021 at Sao Chang College, Tuensang at the College Multipurpose Hall with Mr. Vikram Ezung, NPS, Sub-Divisional Police Officer, Tuensang as the resource person.

In the programme, the Sub-Divisional Police Officer spoke on the increasing incidents of crime against women in the country. He said that in order to minimize such crimes, awareness need to be conducted at all levels all over the country. He said that, unless the attitude of the people changes, crime against women will not come down. Therefore, he appeal to all concerned to develop healthy approach and treat women equally as man.

The programme was chaired by Mr. Dipak Nath, Asst. Prof Department of Physics and welcome address was delivered by Mr. Longtichang, Vice Principal. Vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. L.J. Neken Jamir, Coordinator, Internal Quality Assurance Cell, Sao Chang College

A total of 82(Male-38 and Female- 44) participants attended the seminar.

(Shri Longtichang Tzudir)
Principal Incharge
Sao Chang College
Tuensang: Nagaland